HASH HISTORY – RUN #1549 – Sabotage!!! – Reported by Secret Undercover Reporter Em Wohs

Ah Springtime! It was a beautiful day, and thusly about 40 people showed up for the run, even though they knew it was UNDERTOKER's. And because of the identity of the Hare, most showed no real shock when it was discovered that the Hare himself, was shocked to discover, at the very beginning, a competing trail, more heavily marked with flour than his own. CORNHOLIO and SHOW ME took off to follow this well-marked "other" trail, only to be called back to join the masses heading in the opposite direction guided by a frantically pointing UNDERTOKER. Actually, his trail did have some good variety. We followed a few city streets, then a lot of shaggy, then some woods, then a parking lot with a beer check. At that point, the hare played a cute trick, trapping SHOW ME in thick briars at an impossible creek crossing. All the other Hashers saw the trap for what it was and continued along the true trail which did eventually cross that same creek twice on bridges, then through a deep woods to a second beer stop where we could enjoy our liquid refreshment while watching a few FRBs run up the ultra-steep false past the beer check. Then we ran through a swamp, then through more shaggy, then through a pedestrian tunnel under the tracks next to the Glacial Drumlin trail, then through a neighborhood and then onto trails that paralleled the Glacial drumlin trail. After that, we again hit the competing trail that so befuddled the Hare at the start and that took us straight to the house of SHOW ME's daughter, Freda, for the third (surprise) beer check, which was only one block from our cars. Dinner and ceremonies were at Just Marsha's house. UNDERTOKER grilled burgers and there was plenty of fixins and salads. But as the sky darkened, we all got very cold and moved indoors for awards. UNDIE's co-hares were the WILLIEBANGERS. WET WILLIAM seems to be the co-hare of choice and though he has been a Hasher for less than a year, he has co-hared at least 26 times. JFL went to SLOW HAND for being so publicly and unaccountably late for the second beer check. FRB went to RD, COLONEL and SHOW ME. STROKES, as always, was the SCB. Hash Shit went to UNDIE for scolding poor 3 BANGER, his long-suffering co-hare for the manner in which she laid out the beer check.. AH SHIT was also Hash Shit for peeing with a group of females in the woods. STROKES was given an award for Bike hashing, which he repeats again next week at the Bride run. And after that, we all had just a grand ol' time, then we all went home.

HASH HISTORY – RUN #1550 – The Third Annual Running of the Brides

Looking radiant in her white wedding gown draped with a Mexican flag, HEIDI HO was once again the prima-briderina and hare for the Third Annual Running of the Brides or "ROTB Cinco do Mayo." It all began after an hour or so of primping, when nearly 50 running brides and a few tuxedoed grooms gathered for photos on the Memorial Union steps at Langdon Street. The pack included many new boots and seldom seens including MUDDY UDDERS, PUBIC DEFENDER, OUTER LIPS, TRACTOR, GUINNESS GIRL (taking photos), Just the Karaoke Woman and CRUSHED BOX's mom. There were some unusual outfits among all the brides, including UPLOADER as a jealous former boyfriend in a wife-beater t-shirt and baseball bat, and PUPPY POKER in the Dos Equis beer bottle outfit covered with bridal gown and veil. The pack drew only casual looks as they followed a trail lined with tiny Mexican flags across Library Mall. After a little misdirection, the trail headed through the campus for a photo op overlooking Lake Mendota before heading to Allen Centennial Gardens for a champagne check served from the back of a van by the elegantly attired JERRY ASS TRICK. The pack also found giant terracotta plant pots to play in, and a real wedding party to harass. After lots of champagne and many photos, the trail continued through campus onto the elevated walkway over Campus Drive where there was much lifting of skirts and honking of horns before continuing on to a photo op with an art cow in front of the Campus Motel where MILKBONHER unfurled a banner that read "Honeymoon Suite $69." After this, the trail headed under Campus Drive and onto the railroad tracks along University Avenue to a tequila check near the Unitarian Meeting House, again served from the back of a van by the magnificent JERRY ASS TRICK. After the tequila check, the trail headed south across University Avenue to the Res-Erection Cemetery for another photo op with another banner from MILKBONHER that appropriately read "Till Death Do Us Part." The point-to-point trail ended at Hoyt Park, and by this time, the temperature was dropping slightly. After shuttling everyone to get their cars and jackets, the On-On wedding reception commenced. There was more champagne, plenty of beer and great Cinco de Mayo food prepared by the hare and co-hares. Ceremundos began with down-downs for the hares, HEIDI HO, WILL HO, MILKBONHER, JERRY ASS TRICK, DRIBS and RIDES followed by FRBs (front running brides) LORENA CARROT and AH SHIT. The SCBs (short cutting beers) were PUPPY POKER and RETURN TO GENDER while the hash shit went to BABY BALLS, MS'D ERECTION, MONKEY, STOOLIE and UNDERTOKER for dressing like men. Best brides were WET WILLIE (his dress fit perfectly), MOUSE BOY (for his cross cultural harem-bride and groom outfit), STROKES (for looking like a grandmother) and BLOWN DRY (as the Cinco de Priest). The best Cinco de Mayo outfit award went to BEERNUTS the mariachi boy and DRIBS for his giant wedding sombrero and pancho. BABY BALLS was judged to be "Ready for the PROM" in his a frilly prom-like tuxedo. The angriest former boyfriend award went to UPLOADER while the FMLYMI went to MS'D ERECTION. Then it was time for seldom seens PUBIC DEFENDER and TRACTOR, and new boots Just Bobbi made cum by MILKBONHER, Just Jill and Just Bella (carrying Just Barbie) made cum by LORENA, Just Lori and Just Karen made cum by PUBIC DEFENDER and Just Michelle made cum by TRACTOR. The JFL appeared to go to SOGGY and 3 BANGHER, and DFL went to MR RHYTHM who showed up late in civilian clothing like nothing special was going on. Finally there was a gang down-down for the wretched excess of running the Lake Monona 20K earlier in the day for TRAILER, HERBAWHORE, READY, SAMORI, CO-CO, HEAVE HO, BONE AGAIN and maybe others. There was a futile attempt to get all HOs to drink but there were too many present.
